

COVID-19 Update for LPUNEST Exam

Due to the rise in the daily cases of Covid-19 in different parts of the country, many state governments have put various restrictions to curb the spread of the virus. Considering the scenario of restricted movement and keeping the focus on the safety of the candidates, LPU extends the option of Online Remotely Proctored LPUNEST exam from home.

If student opts remotely proctored exam from home, then he will enter the time and date of exam in interface. Candidate will get email regarding guidelines, date and time of exam. The remotely proctored exam will be monitored live through various Artificial Intelligence tools and by the invigilators. Any suspected activity may lead to the cancellation of exam. Candidate must ensure following for appearing in exam from home:

- A working Laptop/ Desktop with proper webcam and microphones.
- Proper Internet Connection.
- An isolated room with proper lighting without any external disturbances.

In case, the candidate wants to appear on mobile phone, following are the requirements:

- Smartphone with working front camera and microphone.
- 3G/ 4G internet connection.
- An isolated room with proper lighting without any external disturbances.
- Click here to check for the guidelines for Online Remotely Proctored LPUNEST exam from home.
- In exam information step, candidate has to select the combination of subjects from given pool of subjects. For example, B.Tech. Aspirant will select one of the options from Maths or Biology apart from the compulsory subjects Physics, English and Chemistry.
- Finally, candidate will click submit button to complete the process.